City Clerk Loeffler has decided not to take any of his thoroughbred dogs from the McBeth kennels to the Pittsburg bench show, which opens to-day. He had made four or five entries, but the condition of the animals is not such as it should be for a contest, and the owner of them cannot now take the time from his business.

January and February are months during which the Ohio canal is supposed to be closed to navigation. It may interest those who are fond of belittling that highway to learn that in those months 3,000 tons of coal passed this port, for distribution between Massillon and Akron, the bulk of it going to Akron. That amount of coal is equal to 200 car loads of 15 tons each.

Mr. A. W. Inman, of the Massillon Water Company, is an enthusiast on the subject of electric railways, having only just finished superintending the construction of one at Aurora, Ill. He has photographs showing the sort of a line built there, which is a model in all respects. The cars are especially fine, being wide and roomy, both ends vestibuled, affording the motor-man protection, and serving to keep the cars warm in cold weather. A recent number of the Aurora Express says that during a test one of the cars was taken down Lincoln avenue at the rate of eighteen and a third miles an hour, the power used being equivalent to twenty-two horses.

DR. GARDNER'S DINNER.

Dr. D. S. Gardner gave a dinner last night at his residence in West Main street, thus commemorating the fourth anniversary of the taking of his degree. It was entirely a "stag party," covers being laid for sixteen guests, including Dr. T. C. Miller, Dr. Paul Kirchhofer, C. H. Rudolph, C. G. King, Edward Pille, J. N. Merwin, George Hackett, A. H. Coleman, Jerome Shepley, C. M. Atwater, S. S. Hathaway, H. F. Rider, E. E Fox, Henry Huber and J. M. Schuckers. The arrangements were tasteful and complete, the guests being seated at 8 o'clock, not rising until 11. The dining room was brightened with smilax, and at every plate lay a handsome Marshal Neil rose. A huge center piece of carnations completed the table decorations. After cigars, the company enjoyed cards until after 1 o'clock. The following is the elaborate menu provided for the pleasant occasion;

BARBAROUS QUACKERY.

Fatal Result of the Work of an Incompetent Physician.

According to the laws of the state of Ohio, an experience of ten years as a practicing physician is as good as a university degree. It is one of the anomalies of the time that such is the fact, for it involves the possibility of recitals like the following:

Dr. D. S. Gardner was called, on February 22, to the home of T. L. Davis, living near Sippo, whose sixteen year old son, Albert, lay suffering from sub-acute rheumatism. A complication of other troubles developed, the heart being affected and corea, or St. Vitus dance setting in. Whether the young man would have recovered under intelligent treatment from Dr. Gardner is not certain, but his condition may be judged from the circumstance that the doctor refused to make daily visits to Sippo, on the ground that it was unnecessary, and looked after the case at intervals of several days, when requested to come out. According to the understanding, Dr. Gardner was to get a report from Sippo, by telephone, on Saturday. Saturday came and went, but no report was sent, and then the resident physician's connection with the case ended. Now comes the denouement in the sad affair:

The family, so it seems, for reasons best known to themselves, concluded that the mild and rational treatment being administered was not proving beneficial, and therefore called in a well known quack practicing in this vicinity, who promptly announced his ability to bring the unfortunate lad out.

He prescribed daily immersion in a barrel of water, just as hot as the patient could be made to endure, into which should be dissolved sulphur, potash and a number of equally nonsensical ingredients. The directions required the first immersion to continue half an hour, the second fifteen minutes longer, and so on up to one hour.

The boy was thrust into the scalding liquid three times, rebelling violently each time, and giving every indication of extreme suffering during the involuntary bath. During the third immersion, yesterday morning, after struggling as before, he seemed to go to sleep and was removed after seventeen minutes. Efforts were made to restore consciousness, but in a few minutes he was dead. The body at once turned black and so remains.

One of this city's most competent physicians, hearing the story, as his lightest criticism, pronounced the treatment not only barbarous, but absolutely preposterous, from every point of view.

A KNOCKED OUT SCHEME.

BIG ED ERTLE'S CHAMPIONS SUDDENLY STRIKE A SNAG.

Jacob Reed Schlagel, the Czar of the Local Legislature, Can't Make Four a Quorum, and Imperial Dictator Young Falls to Help Him.

The familiar but ordinarily unpopular sign, "Standing Room Only," was displayed in the lobby of the council chamber last evening, long before the hour set for calling the body "from refreshment to labor." It was readily apparent to one accustomed to casting a critical eye over the composition of the spectators restricted to that limited section of the city capitol building that the evening's attraction was not to be legislation affecting the water works system, bonding the city, discussing fire brick street paving, or to award an electric street car franchise; and a moment's reflection over pending local affairs, and a survey of the features in the lobby was sufficient to locate the cause of the remarkable gathering upon the fact that the portentious matter of selecting a driver for the central hose cart was to be settled! It was whispered in a reporter's ear that every one of the eighteen or twenty applicants for the position was present and eagerly awaiting his fate.

THE COUNCILMANIC CZAR.

ENTREE OF THE STATESMEN.

"Major" Loeffler, the distinguished appearing gentleman who presides at the clerk's desk, filed majestically in prior to the appointed hour for the gavel to fall, and was followed by the four Democratic members of the body, the portly form of the solicitor concluding the procession. Then a full half hour was passed in random conversation, and the Democratic law makers began to discern through their olfactories the presence of a full grown rodent—or, in other words, that the members of the other political party would not put in an appearance.

When that fact became apparent the solicitor became angry, and vowed with outstretched and uplifted hands and fervent articulation and emphatic gesticulation that he was prepared to remain there all night (at this interesting stage the reporters ordered a lunch from Sam Rollins's) if need be, in order that the highly important public business of the city (the selection of a driver for the hose cart) should not be obstructed or delayed. The angered solicitor and the talented president of the council conferred together and the legal official dictated an imperative writ of duces tecum or habeas corpus or something else, commanding the marshal or any police officer to arrest on sight any and all the absent Republicans and bring them in dead or alive.

THE MARSHAL OUT ON A TRAIL.

In the discharge of his duty the marshal promptly proceeded to scurry about the city in a faithful and conscientious endeavor to get on a hot trail of the much wanted quartette, and it is said that the officer's perseverance was finally rewarded by finding Messrs. Dangler and Cameron. But the shock to the systems of the two members, neither of whom are robust men, when confronted by an officer of the law armed with a warrant for their arrest was so great as to throw both into a sudden and violent spell of sickness—so severe, in fact, as to prostrate them; and the marshal, out of regard for the afflictions of suffering humanity, did not feel that he would be justified in clubbing them into unconsciousness and then summoning the patrol wagon in order to comply with the imperative writ given him by the pair of distinguished schemers who run the city of Massillon—in their minds.

SO THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED.

Hence, when the clock indicated that the hour of 8:30 had arrived and the presence of none of the absent Republicans had been secured, the sadly disappointed chairwarmers in the lobby and the disgusted Democratic councilmen filed sadly and sorrowfully from the chamber, the latter, and especially the solicitor, denouncing the act of the opposition in remaining away and frustrating their cute little plans to place a Democrat into the driver's seat on the hose cart.

THE JUDGE WHO IS "CHILD-LIKE AND BLAND."

A single paragraph is sufficient to expose the clever trap arranged for the Re-

The sending of 3,000 tons of coal to Akron by canal, during January and February, is not so bad for a route alleged to have lost its usefulness. And this was done when the canal is supposed to be closed, too.

The lively interest manifested in the Republican caucus last night, is one of the hopeful signs of the times. An increased interest in local affairs, means good men at the head of government, and in consequence better government.

Let it be firmly born in mind that the Republican primary election will be Saturday next. As the Democratic primary election will follow one week later the word should be passed around, and the confusion of the two elections avoided.

The amusing scenes which transpired in the tin topped capitol of the city, last night, over the election of a hose cart driver, will be read this evening with deep interest by all. It seems that a plot was met by a counter plot, and the counter plot won the first bout.

The logic of the coal trade situation points to the building of a modern canal, erroneously styled ship canal, from the lake to the Ohio, and whether that canal is to follow the route of the present Ohio canal, or to connect Fairport harbor and Pittsburg, is largely a matter for the people of this state to determine. It appears, and there is no less authority than the Pittsburg Dispatch for this statement, that the control of the lower river markets has passed out of the hands of Pittsburg coal operators, and into those of the Kanawha companies, who have at their command inexhaustible beds of coal. This throws the Pennsylvania coal producers out of their best market, and they must either reach the great Northwest territory, or go out of business. To get into that market they must inevitably cut through to the lake with their proposed canal, and this is reasonably sure to be done unless the state of Ohio sees far enough ahead to properly improve the Ohio canal, which would afford the Kanawha and lower country coal the outlet which the Pittsburg people desire, and by forestalling them, prevent a consummation of their plans. Kanawha coal is not so good as the Pittsburg coal, but is cheaper, and any route which can send this cheap steam coal into the northwest, along with the Massillon, or best domestic coal, is certain to control the business.

Bought the Hanna Farm.

Messrs. Daniel and Frank Hemperly, yesterday, bought at private sale the A R. Hanna farm, located about one half mile south of East Greenville. The farm which consists of 100 acres, is one of the most desirable and valuable in Tuscarawas township, being heavily stocked with choice fruit trees of all varieties and the other adjuncts being literally perfect. The new owners will convert it into a first class stock farm, and will also drill it for coal, a five foot vein having been found under adjacent lands. The price paid was $5,500, and in proof of the statement that it is a desirable piece of realty it may be said that the Messrs. Hemperly were offered $500 for their bargain within a few hours after their purchase.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Sternberg Recital.

The piano and song recital at Music hall to morrow evening promises to be the best of the season. The programme contains a ragout of the best that was written from the seventeenth century to the present time. Dom. Scarlatti, born in Trapani, Italy, 1683, died 1757, was the chief composer of the sonata form. Being himself the best performer on the harpischord, his sonatas naturally require great technique. They are light, fresh, lively and very intelligent. The Gluck caprice and airs from his grand opera Alceste, promise to be a novel feature. Gluck, born 1714, died 1797 was a creative genius of the highest order. His compositions show a remarkable degree of dramatic truthfulness. Chopin, Jensen and Schumann are the best writers of piano music, of the romantic school of music. Their compositions represent the ideal, not of music alone, but of all that is beautiful. Liszt's music is mostly "virtuosi" music; it partakes of the popular and romantic style. The other composers are contemporaries of which six are Americans. Nearly all of them have made their mark in the world of art. One of them, Mr. Wilson G. Smith Ohio's foremost composer will be present also. Sternberg himself abounds in originality in his numerous compositions. The programme will be given to-morrow.

At Bucher's Wednesday Night.

Frank Harvey's new play, "The World Against Her," was produced for the first time in Brooklyn last night, at the Grand opera house, by Agnes Wallace Villa, supported by a remarkably well balanced company. The play of the plot of which a sketch has already been given, proved to be a strong melodrama of a much higher order of merit than one is accustomed to find or to expect in pieces of its class. It scored a decided success, the principals being recalled after each act. The secret of its success is not hard so discover. The story is in itself of exciting interest, and as worked out in incident, situation, and dialogue, appeals strongly to the sympathies and excites the purest emotions of human nature. The self-sacrificing, fearless love of a mother for her child, the sufferings of a wronged and much injured wife, the bright side of life among the poor contrasted with its hardships and gloomy surroundings, the Christian kindness which the lowly extend to each other and to those more destitute than themselves—these are all phases of life which are treated naturally and with such simple power. The prevalent sombre tone of the play is relieved by touches of humor, introduced by the showman and his wife and the love by-play of a romantic girl in her teens and her not very demonstrative sweetheart.

Mr. Harvey's play had considerable success in England before it was secured for this country. It is, beyond a doubt, destined to become popular here with the vast multitude of playgoers who like melodrama, pure and simple. The individual members of the excellent company elicited warm applause from the crowded house. It is cleverly acted and handsomely staged.—Brooklyn Eagle.

West Brookfield.

Mr and Mrs. John Smith spent part of last week at Brighton, O.

William Sibila is ill.

Allen Ralston, who claims this as his birth-place, but who has lived for the past few years at Kent, O., has purchased the Ralston farm, just west of town, and will move here this week to take possession. The price paid was $88 per acre.

Mrs. Moles is on the sick list.

John C. Jones will soon have his hay scales in position.

Samuel F. Lyons will remove from here to the home which he purchased lately in Massillon.

John Levers and wife are the proud parents of another girl.

H. M. Minnick has purchased the Henry Keiffer property, at the east end of our village; consideration, $2,200.

John Greber has purchased the property owned by H. M. Minnick, paying $800.

John Greber rather got it on the boys by going to Massillon on the night of Feb. 25, with Miss Sarah Mayers, an excellent young lady of this township, and getting quietly married by the Rev. Schettler. The boys had been expecting this for some time, but they did not watch closely enough. However, the news got out at last, and now John is setting up oranges, cigars, etc., to married men only.

Miss Rose Vaughn is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Hiram Friend and Sam Shupe have had a "Wild West" show lately, in breaking in a vicious horse which they purchased from Peter Scharles.

J. H. Fisher, Wm. Smith and Maurice Smith were in Canton Saturday.

An effort will be made at the next meeting of the board of education to shorten the school term from nine to eight months. This, with the effort to reduce teachers' wages, if successful, will have the effect of driving from this township some of the best teachers in it and will lower the standard of the schools in the township. The schools of Tuscarawas township are its pride and are considered by competent judges to be the best country schools in Stark county, and we hope for their sake that this effort at sham economy will not prevail.

Lost His Right Hand.

E. H. Morgan, yardmaster of the W. & L. E. road at Valley Junction, had his right hand caught between the bumpers while making a coupling this morning. The man passed through the city this afternoon on his way home to Fremont, and the train was held at this station while Dr. Ridenour, the company surgeon, amputated the first finger.

The Fraternal Guardians will meet in the A. O. U. W. hall this (Tuesday) evening at 7 o'clock.

REPUBLICANS IN LINE.

Good Ticket Material Found at the Caucus.

The Republicans of Perry township held their party caucus in the mayor's court room, last night, with a good attendance, and lively interest in the proceedings. W. F. Ricks presided, and James M. Bayliss acted as secretary.

After names for the numerous offices had been presented it was decided to hold the primary election at Schafer & Mausz's office, in Erie street, Saturday afternoon, March 14, from 1 to 7 o'clock. Upon motion all arrangements for the primary election were delegated to Chairman Ricks and Mayor Reed, who will also assess the candidates for primary election expenses.

Mayor Reed moved, and it was agreed to, that names be made to appear on the ticket in the order presented at the caucus. It was then decided that names might be handed in for insertion up to Thursday night. Upon Thursday night all candidates are expected to meet at the mayor's office, to hold a private conference, and to pay their assessments. Joseph Donnelly wanted every man up for office to pledge his loyal support to the ticket as nominated. All agreed that that was the right thing to do, but the present was the wrong time to discuss it. Everybody was in the best of spirits and the business was completed with order and despatch.

The list of names presented to the caucus, with a few additions made immediately after adjournment, is as follows:

For marshal—Adam Wendling, Fred Paul.

For solicitor—E. G. Willison, D. F. Reinoehl.

For treasurer—J. W. Foltz, L. A. Koons.

For street commissioner—Charles Buck, E. B. Bayliss, Joseph Healy, John B Snyder, Ezekiel Keller.

For council: ward one—Z. T. Baltzly, J. E. Smith; ward two—Henry Huber, Wayne Matthews; ward three—E. J. Hamill; ward four—R. A. Pinn.

MR. COXEY DISAPPOINTED.

Robert Bonner Replies to His Recent Offer.

The following highly interesting bit of horse news was accidently omitted from about one-third of yesterday's last edition:

J. S. Coxey's hope of getting a foal from the mating of his stallion Acolyte and Maud S. is doomed to disappointment. In a recent correspondence with Mr. Bonner, the owner of Maud S., Mr. Coxey offered the proprietor of the queen of the trotting turf $12,000 for the get of her and Acolyte. Following is Mr. Bonner's reply, as published in the Pittsburg Times:

NEW YORK, March 3, 1891.

J. S. COXEY—Dear Sir: I am much obliged to you for your offer, but I have several stallions at my farm that are as well bred as any others in the country, and I intend to breed Maud S to one of them. If I should succeed in having a foal out of Maud S nothing could induce me to part with it. Yours truly,

ROBERT BONNER.

Bad Fire at Wellston.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

WELLSTON, O., March 10.—A disastrous fire has destroyed one square completely, excepting two buildings. The loss includes the First National bank building, nine business blocks, one hotel and one boarding house.

The Tramp Nuisance

No skepticism followed THE INDEPENDENT'S announcement yesterday that forty-five tramps were encamped near the rolling mill on Sunday. In fact, most housekeepers are ready to believe that there are 450 around town. The worst scare in connection with this nuisance is reported from East Main street. Yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when no one was at the residence of C. B. Allman, except the girl who happened, however, to be out of hearing, one of the impecunious genus was seen to enter the yard. The sister of the girl in the house, who lives next door, saw him go in, and after a few minutes had occasion to go over herself, supposing his trampship to have left. No sooner had she knocked at the back door than the rascally loafer approached from the rear of the lot, and pulling a shining revolver, pointed it directly at the trembling woman. Without screaming she nevertheless fled, the tramp after her. She reached home in safety, but neglected to report the occurrence until 6 o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. Allman returned. The tramp is described as having worn a cap and black overcoat.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. A Boston lady, whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, knew what it was, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other. When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly

ECHOES FROM THE SHOPS.

Note and Comment on Men and Doings at Russell Co.'s.

Mr. Ed. Peacock, of Chicago, paid the shops a visit yesterday.

Mr. Henry Pflug has been confined to the house since last Friday with the grip.

Mr. Lee Cecil, who has not been well for some time, is now confined to the house with sore throat and a painful carbuncle on his neck.

One of the handsomest offices in the departments here is that occupied by Harry Clay and Howard Garrigues. There has just been added a handsome awning, which projects over the large desk dedicated to their use, which is made of bamboo or some other light and rich material that is deeply suggestive of the sunny clime of tea and pig tails. It has been mentioned by many of an observant turn of mind that all this awning lacks to make it complete is one of Jake Foltz's advertising cards.

There are a great many people suffering from la grippe just now. There various kinds of this disease around at this time. In fact, this may well be termed the grip season. That which is the most malignantly persistent in its nature, and which seems to be the most prevalent is the candidate grip. This form seems to cling as though it would stay with you always, and the angel of peace who bruises it is a friend to everybody. Even the humblest is approached with the most courtly politeness, with the most anxious inquiries after the state of his health. He looks as though longing to embrace you as he administers a vigorous dose of grip and inquires, "Well Jim, old boy, how are you anyhow? I've often passed you on the street, but you always seemed in such a hurry. How are all the folks? That's a bright boy of yours, He always puts me in mind of you—same ways you know. I wrote to those parties concerning your case, but men are so forgetful you know. I'll look it up again. Bless your life it seems but yesterday that we went to school together. Hello, there's Harry over there. Poor fellow, he's in hard luck. I'm so sorry for him. I must go over and speak to him at least. See you again, you know. Give my regards to Mrs. Jim. My wife often speaks of her." And as he tears himself away you heave a sigh that almost bursts the lump in your throat, and go over into the corner and wipe away two big scalding tears on your shirt sleeve, thankful that there is one friend who is ever mindful of your interests, and unselfish in his love.

Mr. Baer's Musical Plans.

Failing health and many solicitations induce me to devote a portion of my time to music. I will receive a limited number of pupils in music study and violin practice. I will also rearrange and adjust music to suit the requirements of any number and combination of instruments and all grades of performers, securing to small orchestras, the beauty of harmony, volume of tone, style and character of music as intended by the composer, and imparted by larger orchestras. Will manage and personally lead an orchestra of my own soon as a suitable and efficient organization can be effected, and will guarantee satisfaction in every respect, as in the past. Due notice will be given at to orchestra.

A FRIGHTFUL CRIME.

A HUSBAND'S HORRIBLE DEEDS OF BLOOD AT BATESVILLE, IND.

He Probably Fatally Wounds His Wife and Relative, Shoots His Three-Year-Old Daughter Through the Heart, Then Cuts His Own Throat—The Murderer a Well-Known Hotel Man.

BATESVILLE, IND., March 10.—This town is in a state of great excitement over a tragedy that occurred here on Sunday, causing the death of two people and seriously wounding two more. John Dirscherl, a well-known hotel man, and former proprietor of the Batesville house, shot and killed his little daughter and cut his own throat. He was drunk and crazed with jealousy, and having quarreled with Mrs. McCoy, his wife's grandmother, he seemed to lose his mind entirely, and rushing into the room where his wife was, began firing at her. Myrtle, his 3-year-old daughter, hearing her mother's screams, ran into the room, followed by Mrs. McCoy and a kitchen girl. Dirscherl then turned and placed the revolver near Mrs. McCoy's head and fired at her, making a scalp wound. The little girl screamed and clung to the old lady for protection, but the father caught her and placed the revolver, a 38-caliber bulldog, within a few inches of her back and shot her through the heart, killing her instantly. He then fired the remaining shot at the frightened cook, and fled upstairs.

He Did the Work Effectually.

By this time a number of people had gathered and were doing what they could for the wounded ones. Dirscherl came staggering back into the room, with his throat cut from ear to ear and fell dead. He had used an ordinary case knife to cut his throat with, but it did the work effectually, having severed both arteries and the windpipe. His wife is badly wounded, but may recover, but up to the present the ball has not been located, it having struck a corset stay and ranged downward, undoubtedly saving the woman's life. Dirscherl was in unusually good spirits the night previous, and his frightful crime is quite a surprise to all who knew him. A relative of his had died at Oldenburg, a little village three miles from Batesville, and he made a trip to Greensburg to order a coffin for the dead person. He reached Batesville on his return at about 3 o'clock in the morning. It is not known whether he went directly home or not, but it is rumored that when he did reach his home he discovered circumstances which led him to suspect his wife of infidelity. However, Mrs. Dirscherl, a young woman of 25, has always borne a good reputation. Dirscherl was 30 years old.

A CHURCH BURNED TO THE GROUND.

The Unfortunate Slate Lick Presbyterian Congregation.

FREEPORT, PA., March 10.—Flames were discovered issuing from the windows of the Slate Lick Presbyterian church Sunday morning. In two hours the building was in ashes. The church was a large brick building, about 45 by 65 feet, with a basement and main auditorium. The loss will be from $15,000 to $20,000. Slate Lick is the center of a healthy farming community about midway between Freeport and Kattanning. The loss is a severe blow to the community, as there was only $2,000 insurance on the property. The church was in exellent repair, having been remodeled and refurnished about three years ago at considerable expense. On May 6, 1875, the church was blown down by a wind storm. A heavy increase in the supply of natural gas during the night is the supposed cause.

THE CANADIAN CABINET

Will Meet on Wednesday and Discuss Reciprocity with the United States.

OTTAWA, March 10.—There will be a full meeting of the cabinet on Wednesday, for the first time since the elections. At this meeting the government will decide upon the line of action it will take with regard to opening reciprocity negotiations with the United States. Sir John Thompson will be associated with Sir Charles Tupper as Canada's commissioner. Newfoundland will be invited to join in the negotiations. Parliament will meet in six weeks.

Cardinal Manning Will Preside.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A telegram from London to the International Telegram company says: Cardinal Manning is announced to preside at the banquet of the McCarthyite faction to be held in London on St. Patrick's day. This is the first time that the venerable prelate has openly placed himself at the front of the movement in opposition to Parnell, and his acceptance of the chairmanship on this occasion is believed to be in open pursuance of a hint from Rome that this stand taken by the Irish bishops should receive his support.

Economites May Furnish the Site.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., March 10.—From an apparently thoroughly reliable source comes the statement that the Harmony society, at Economy, has offered one-half the large lot on Seventh avenue, on which the Economy bank is situated, for $10,000, as a location for the new government building. The land is centrally located, and the price named is one-half the actual value of the grounds. A petition for the indorsement of the location is being circulated here.

VICE PRESIDENT BARNIE

Says the American Association Will Do Business on Its Own Hook.

CINCINNATI, O., March 10.—The advance guard of the American association arrived here yesterday. Vice President Barnie said in an interview: "This will be no war. The American association will simply continue to do business on its own hook. We shall seek no conflict. The league has made its schedule and we will follow with ours at the meeting. There may be some unavoidable conflicts, but not many, and unless the league changes its schedule there will be none of the friction that did so much to injure the game last year. The season will open on the 11th of April, I think—not the 9th. The American association proposes to give the eastern clubs a little baseball on the 4th of July, and we will play in the east on Decoration day. There are likely to be conflicts in Boston and Philadelphia on Labor day for the reason that that is more of a holiday in the east than it is in the west." "You are not worried over the stories that Al. Johnson will step down and out?" was asked. "No. I do not believe them. Mr. Johnson told Mr. Vonderhorst that he would cut off his right arm rather than treat with the league now. He is eager to retaliate upon his late partners, and the association gave him that chance."

The League Gobbles Association Property.

CLEVELAND, O., March 10.—Last night a deal was completed between Albert L. Johnson and J. Palmer O'Neil, of the National league, whereby the former sells out for $30,000 cash all his property in baseball. This includes the contracts with Cincinnati and Cleveland players, the ground leases in both cities and all other things connected with the national game. Judge Sanders and Attorney L. A. Russell, of this city, and Ed. Hanlon and F. H. Brunell assisted in the transfer. The league at once takes possession of all association property.

Johnson Denounced at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, March 10.—When the association managers now in the city learned that Johnson had sold out, the news created consternation, as all their plans were based on his fidelity, and he was denounced in bitter terms. He had led them to the last moment to believe he was true, and they were to complete arrangements for the season. Johnson's treachery has killed the association's hopes in this city.

A Wheat Thief's End.

WICHITA, KAN., March 10.—C. A. Ward had a large bin of wheat on his farm near Garden Plains. On Friday he discovered one of the roof boards off, and looking inside saw lying on the wheat a sack and a man's hat. Shortly after he commenced loading the wheat into wagons. Hardly had the first wagon been loaded when a pair of shoe soles appeared in the wheat and a little investigation discovered them to be on the feet of a man's body standing head down in the bin. The only explanation is that the body was that of an intending thief, who over-balanced himself while entering the bin, and went in head foremost and was smothered before he could extricate himself. An inquest was held and as the body was unidentified, it was buried in the potters field.

Sick Legislators.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 10.—Twenty-five members of the legislature are seriously ill here. Two have died during the session and one is reported on his death-bed. The general ailment is pneumonia. Inadequate ventilation in the state house, which permits of a multitude of draughts, has caused the whole trouble.

Price of Prayers in Wisconsin.

MADISON, WIS., March 10.—The retrenchment committee of the legislature is considering a proposition to reduce the pay of the clergymen of Madison, who are called on to open the sessions of the two houses with prayer. The last legislature reduced the price to $10 a prayer, and now it is proposed to make the price $10 per week.

The Papal Enclynical on Labor.

ROME, March 10.—The pope has entrusted to the bishop of Newport and Menevia the translation into the English language of the papal enclynical on labor and kindred subjects. The translation will be finished by Easter and then forwarded to all English-speaking prelates.

An Oyster Company Organized.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., March 10.—The American Oyster company, with a capital of $500,000, has just been organized under the laws of Maine. The company will have branches at Augusta, Me.

A Relic of Border Ruffians.

COLBY, KAN., March 10.—A farmer near Mento came to town with the skeleton of a man which he had found in a well fifteen feet below the surface of the ground. He also found a pocket knife and an old watch with the date of 1862 on it. This section of the county was filled with border ruffians at that time who committed many murders.

Bloody Triple Tragedy.

MILAN, TENN., March 10.—Mrs. Sarah Belknap, at Darden, Henderson county, cut the throats of her sleeping daughters, Mary and Ella, on Friday night, and then cut her own. The tragedy was not discovered until Saturday. Three are dead. No cause is known for the terrible deed.

J. SCOVILLE'S WILL.

THE TESTATOR'S ESTATE ESTIMATED TO BE WORTH $3,000,000.

Numerous Bequests Made to Religious and Benevolent Institutions — How One Institution Had Its Bequest Revoked by Not Acknowledging a Gift Made by the Deceased.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 10.—The will of the late Jonathan Scoville was offered for probate yesterday. The estate is estimated at about $3,000,000. The testator gives to his two sisters $20,000 each, to his nephew, William H. Harper, of Chicago, and to his niece, Mary L. Filling, of Washington, $15,000. He gives in trust for his nephews, Samuel Scoville, Pascal and John F. Fisher, $50,000 each. To the widow of his deceased brother, Samuel Scoville, an annuity for life of $500. To the St. John's Episcopal society, of Salisbury, Conn., the interest in perpetuity of $5,000, and to the Methodist Episcopal Union chapel, of Chapinville, $500 per annum in perpetuity. He gives to the Buffalo Orphan Historical society, Fine Arts academy, St. Vincent's Female asylum and the Home for the Friendless, $5,000 each. He gives to the Buffalo Fine Arts academy $25,000, and a like amount to the General hospital, to be used for a school for nurses.

One of the Bequests Revoked.

A codicil, however, revokes the bequest to the Fine Arts academy and directs that $5,000 be given to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and $20,000 to the University of Buffalo. Article 10 gives $12,000 for a suitable building in Salisbury, Conn., for the use of a public library. Other minor bequests are also made. The balance of the estate goes to trustees in trust for the six children of his brother, the late Church Scoville, to be given them successively as they become of age.

How the Testator was Angered.

About a month ago Mr. Scoville sent some statuary to the Fine Arts academy, but no acknowledgment of the gift was made, which angered Mr. Scoville so that he had the codicil framed, saying: "If these people don't think enough of a gift I send them to acknowledge it, why they need not have any more." The academy trustees say that the statuary came just after the regular monthly meeting and they were waiting for the next meeting to make the official acknowledgment.

Anticipate Trouble Over Passenger Rates.

KANSAS CITY, MO., March 10.—There is trouble brewing in the western passenger circles on account of the action of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City in manipulating passenger rates. On the one-day limited Chicago ticket the road has heretofore extended the time to five days, and, by scalping on local points, did a big business. The principal points receiving the benefit of the scalper rates are Des Moines and Marshalltown. The matter came to the attention of the other roads, and such pressure was brought to bear that these tickets were withdrawn. The same road is issuing five-day limited tickets to Forest Home, ten miles this side of Chicago, to which point there is no rule to govern the rate, and the old system of scalping is protected on this ticket. The other roads have discovered the plan, and threaten to resort to some desperate methods if the tickets are not withdrawn.

A Suggestion for the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The director of the University of Havana, who is a commissioner of Cuba to the World's Columbian exposition, has been appointed chairman of the committee on schools, colleges, arts, sciences and history and has proposed to the captain general of the island a novel plan for commemorating the anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus and the subsequent voyages of the discoverer. He suggests that a Spanish naval fleet be sent to the point where Columbus first landed in America and follow his route as closely as possible to all of the places he visited in the new world upon his four voyages. This proposition meets with great favor from both the government and the people of Cuba and is likely to be carried out.

Will Try His Luck in Duck Shooting.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president left here yesterday for Bengies, Md., over the Baltimore and Potomac railroad. He was accompanied by ex-Senator Sewell, of New Jersey, and Charles Loeffler, the president's private doorkeeper. The president's stay will depend upon the luck he has in duck shooting. In any event he will return the latter part of the week.

CHICAGO, March 10.—At a mass meeting of the journeymen carpenters of Chicago at Battery L armory it was decided that should the master carpenters not conclude to accede to the proposition to arbitrate the difference between the carpenters and their employers, a strike of great magnitude will be inaugurated. Fully 3,000 men were present at the meeting, and by their frequent outburst of cheers showed their enthusiasm. The question of wages was declared to be the only point at issue, the journeymen wishing to establish a minimum rate at 37 1-2 cents per hour. The meeting fixed upon March 28 at noon as the time their demands must be met. Resolutions were adopted declaring unscrupulous agents were using the world's fair as a pretext for over-crowding the city with the unemployed of all trades. Mayor Creiger was called upon to issue a proclamation setting forth the true condition of affairs.

A MIDNIGHT EXPLOSION.

GUESTS AROUSED BY FIRE IN THE HOTEL DUQUESNE.

Natural Gas in the Boiler House Starts a Stubborn Fire — Men and Women Panic-Stricken, Rush Through the Corridors Blinded and Stifled by Smoke—One Fireman Injured.

PITTSBURG, March 10.—An explosion of natural gas in the elevator boiler house of the Hotel Duquesne about 11:30 o'clock last night caused a fire which damaged the building to the extent of $2,000 and created the greatest fear and confusion among the guests, most of whom were asleep. The explosion shook the entire back of the hotel. Half-dressed women crowded down the stairs a minute later, crying and sobbing in fright. The fast gathering fire in the boiler rooms and adjoining closets rolled billows of smoke through every room and corridor of the house. The guests fell over each other attempting to get down their trunks. The elevator was closed all last night, the steam having gone down, leaving only two narrow stairways to the first floor. Box 24 includes many big business blocks downtown, and a crowd of hundreds gathered. The only flames visible were shooting out of the door on Virgin alley. Promptly a line of hose was turned on, but a big iron door blocked the water's passage.

The Fire in the Kitchen was quenched, but it made its way up to the third floor along the steam pipes. It was discovered flush with the floor and stopped. In answer to two alarms nine engines had arrived. A line of hose was brought to the second floor and the fire was literally cut out with axes. The stuccoed walls and parts of the ceiling fell in masses and the hose was turned on. The house contains sixty-seven rooms. On the third floor permanent boarders are located. Two unknown gentlemen who were in the dining room gave the alarm after the explosion.

The Female Guests

rushed out on Smithfield street. The gentlemen mostly remained on the second floor. Twenty-four waiters lost their coats and dress suits in the closet burned out. Mr. Witherow, the proprietor, thinks the damage will not exceed $3,000. William Harford, of engine company No. 3, had his ankle sprained while cutting through the second floor, and was removed to the hospital. At 1 o'clock the fire had subsided, and most of the guests had returned to their rooms. Some few went to other hotels.

A TEXAS TRAIN ROBBERY.

A Fight Over the Division of the Spoils and One of the Bandits Killed.

BROWNSVILLE, TEX., March 10.—The particulars of the plot which resulted in the robbery of a train on the Rio Grande on Jan. 19, and loss of $25,000, have come to light. Juan Benits, a rich planter, is in jail here, and has confessed. The leader of the party is a well-known smuggler named Simon Garcio. The night after the robbery he stole three horses and left for Mexico. He is being pursued by Mexican cavalry. A portion of the stolen money has been recovered, and all the robbers will probably be captured. They were all ranchers, living in this county. There was a disagreement among them over the division of the spoils, and one of the bandits named Angel Cortins was shot and killed by the leader.

DEATH, NOT SLEEP,

Claimed a Mother as She Sat With Her Boy.

PEORIA, ILL., March 10.—Mrs. Ernest Miller, of Richwoods township, came to the city last Friday to do some trading, and brought a load of country produce. On the road home Mrs. Miller fell asleep as she sat in the wagon-box with her head leaning upon her son. The boy thought his motner was asleep. On reaching home he was unable to waken her. Assistance of the neighbors and family was brought, and the woman was carried within the house, when they found that she was not asleep, but dead. Her physician said that she had been dead for hours, and that she died of apoplexy.

VICTIMS OF HYPNOTISM.

Sudden and Peculiar Illness of Two Lads Much Devoted to Each Other.

NEW YORK, March 10. — George Wilkins and Howard Couch are cousins living near Burlington, N. J. The lads are inseparable and are devoted to each other. They came home Friday evening in their usual health, but within an hour they both became delirious and violently ill. They had both been in perfect health up to that time. The lads live in adjoining buildings, which helps make the sudden and peculiar sickness all the more unaccountable. The parents of the lads firmly believe that they have been made the victims of hypnotism.

Gov. Hill's Message to the Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 10.—Governor Hill sent a message to the legislature last night, in which he urges the passage of an amendment to the election laws. The bill authorizes the bringing of quo warranto proceedings by any candidate for the ousting of the successful candidate, if it can be proved against the latter that either he or his political agents or committees have resorted to fraud or corruption to secure his election, and the giving of an office to a defeated candidate, provided it appear that neither he nor his committees have used corrupt means to promote his election.

$220,000 Fire at Omaha.

OMAHA, NEB., March 10.—Fire yesterday destroyed the printing house of Gibson, Miller & Richardson. Loss $200,000; insurance $140,000. The fire was caused by a boy smoking a cigarette in the press room. Broatch's wagon stock house, adjoining, was damaged to the extent of $20,000; covered by insurance.

Ashland, Wis., Buried in Snow.

ASHLAND, WIS., March 10.—This section of the country has just experienced a veritable blizzard and it is buried in snow. Trains are blockaded everywhere. It was by far the worst storm of the season. It is rumored two squatters on government land near here perished in the storm.

ANOTHER SENATORIAL CONTEST.

No Choice Has Yet Been Made for the Late Senator Hearst's Place.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., March 10.—Balloting for a successor to Senator Hearst has begun. A queer development of the senatorial fight is the story that five Chicago detectives have arrived here to witness the balloting. Information of their presence was brought to the city by a Sacramento man, who came from the east on the same train. The detectives said they were going to Monterey to escape the rigors of a Chicago winter, but got off at Sacramento. What business they have here can only be guessed at, but as they are known to have been making the acquaintance of lobbyists and members, it is believed that they are here on senatorial business.

The candidates are Morris M. Estee, ex-Congressman George O. Felton, M. H. De Young, George H. Bonebrake, ex-Governor George C. Perkins, Gen. N. P. Chipman and ex-Senator A. P. Williams. The Democratic vote will probably go to one of the following persons: James V. Colman, ex-Mayor Pond, Congressman Thomas J. Clunie or William D. English. The Republicans have a majority of sixty in the legislature, but it is thought no choice will be made for several days. The Republicans have as yet called no caucus.

LOST IN THE GALE.

The Steamer Buckeye, with Twenty Passengers. Said to Have Gone Down.

SEATTLE, WASH., March 10. — The steamer Buckeye, with twenty passengers and her crew, is reported lost in the gale of Sunday night on Puget sound, between Edmunds and Appletree Cove. The Buckeye left Edmunds for Appletree Cove, across the sound, eight miles distant, taking about twenty passengers, mostly women and children, who went for a pleasure trip. At Appletree Cove the Buckeye loaded a cargo of vegetables and started back, but at last accounts had not reached Edmunds and had not been seen by any passing vessel. A heavy gale blew, and being an unseaworthy craft, it is supposed the Buckeye went down with all on board. A light was seen by some Edmunds 'longshoremen during the storm, which is supposed to have been that of the Buckeye. It suddenly disappeared and was seen no more. Large quantities of vegetables were washed ashore at Edmunds by the tide.

THE DYING PRINCE NAPOLEON

Attended by Two Cardinals, Yet He is Not Reconciled to the Church.

ROME, March 10.—Prince Napoleon's condition remains unchanged. Prince Victor has refused to make submission, which is the only condition on which his father will consent to receive him. All the other members of the family are hastening to Rome. The dying prince is attended by Cardinals Buona Parte and Mermilliod, but they have desisted from asking him to become reconciled to the church. Prince Napoleon's physicians announce that both lungs of their patient are conjested and that but a few hours can elapse before a fatal result. The prince has repeatedly and positively declined the religious consolation which has been proffered by priests who have been permitted to enter the chamber of the dying man.

Maine's Municipal Elections.

BANGOR, ME., March 10.—Joseph F. Snow, Democrat, was elected mayor yesterday by nearly 400 plurality over Beal, Republican, and Fox, Prohibitionist. The Republicans carried four of the seven wards.

At Belfast, Hon. William P. Thompson, late Democratic nominee for governor, was elected mayor yesterday by 430 majority. Both branches of the city government are Republican.

J. W. Chase, Republican, was elected mayor of Augusta over R. J. Martin by 202 plurality. The Republicans carried every ward in the city but one.

The contest at Biddeford resulted in the election of the full Democratic ticket in every ward. Mayor Edward W. Staples had 1,194 votes; Dr. John Lord, Republican, 676; a Democratic gain of 140 over a year ago.

Trial of the Hennessy Tragedy.

NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—In the Hennessy case yesterday Attorney Flinn, counsel for Politz, asked an adjournment to enable him to secure the confidence of his client. Judge Baker replied that after the defense have closed Flinn would be given sufficient time to prepare his case. W. Ill testified that he was with Bagnetto from 11 p. m until he was arrested in Poidras market. Muncy Meyers saw Bagnetto in Poidras market from 9:30 until he was arrested by the police on the night of the murder.

Baptised by Wholesale.

PITTSBURG, March 10.—The rather unusual sight of 44 young colored men and women in one body being baptised in the Monongahela river was witnessed by several thousand people Sunday morning. The immersion took place at the foot of the wharf, opposite the Monongahela house, and were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pryor, of Ebenezer church. Twenty-three converts of Good Hope Baptist church were baptized in the Allegheny river by the Rev. Mr. Gibson, the Rev. Mr. Robinson and Deacon Johnson.

CONDENSED OHIO NEWS.

The first demand made on Ohio's share of the direct tax money is for $200,000 to spend on a new prison.

R. G. McGaughey, the Bellaire lawyer who forged the note over Phillip Schaefer's name and sold it to Lawyer J. B. Smith, was found guilty by a jury. The penalty is from one to five years.

A Subtle Insinuation.

"Do you think Dr. Preechus was justified in speaking of Mr. Sloman in that way?" asked she.

"Why, I thought he was very complimentary in his remarks," said he.

"Perhaps he was, but he need not have alluded to him so often as the late Mr. Sloman, even if he was always behind time."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Gladsome Time.

Mother—Goodness me! Johnny! Johnny! Why ain't you at school instead of hurrahing around the streets like a wild Indian?

Johnny (dancing a jig)—No school today!

Mother—No school? Why?

Johnny—Teacher's dead.—Street & Smith's Good News.

A KNOCKED OUT SCHEME.

publican members to fall into: One of the numerous applicants for the vacant driver's position is big Democratic Ed Ertle, the saloon-keeper not unknown to fame, and he was the one whom the four Democrats had united upon, and his election—a plurality vote only being necessary—was to be effected by receiving the four votes of his party—the Democrats being aware of the fact early in the day that Mr. Leu, one of the Republican members, was out of the city and would not be present. Proof of the fact that the Democrats had united upon Ertle for the place is furnished by the fact that a prominent but indiscreet member of the party made two bets several days ago that Ertle would be chosen on the first ballot.

Thus do the best laid schemes of Democratic men and mice gang aft aglee.

SOLICITOR YOUNG CALM.

Prior to the dispersing of the party hosts from the council chamber the solicitor calmed himself down sufficiently to write out a formidable petition to the august president of the body requesting him to call a special meeting for Tuesday evening, March 10, for the purpose of electing a driver for the hose cart, considering the free coinage bill, revising the ten commandments, and for other purposes, which was duly signed by each member present upon the commany of the solicitor wfthout even taking the trouble to read the document.

The latest bulletins from the sick chambers of the Republican councilmen, issued at 4 p m., is that their conditions are critical, but hopes are entertained of their recovery in a week or two.

North Lawrence.

Mr. George Pollock, who some years ago had his leg broken in the mine and which has troubled him very much ever since, has gone to Cleveland to have the leg amputated if necessary.

Minglewood mine worked five days last week, Blain and Logan three and Clover Hill two and a half days.

As the river miners have got the advance some of our young men intend leaving to reap a share of the harvest.

It is generally supposed that the Minglewood Coal Company will in the near future begin another opening in some part of their extensive field.

One of the most interesting columns in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper is devoted to the exposure of life insurance frauds, and is signed "The Hermit." This paper's advice regarding speculation and investment on Wall street, in the "Jasper" article, also attracts a great deal of attention. Independent Company.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The Book Trust Knocked Out

Some six months ago we began the publication of our reprint of the famous Encyclopædia Brittanica in 25 volumes, which we issued at $1.50 per volume. The price of the English edition always has been and still is $8 per volume, and the Scribner edition $5 per volume in the cheapest binding.

That the public appreciates so great a bargain is shown by the fact that over half a million volumes of this reprint have been sold in less than six months.

This elegant new edition we still offer at the same price, $1.50 per volume. This is the greatest bargain ever known in books.

Better still, we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments, to suit the convenience of customers.

Remember this is not an abridgement but the great Edinburg ninth edition, reproduced page for page, with important articles upon American subjects rewritten to date by eminent American authors, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition.

We further announce that we have in preparation three volumes of "American Additions and Revisions," thoroughly suplementing the work. With these suplemental volumes you will have at small cost an Encyclopædia unapproachable in completeness; a thorough "digest of the libraries of the world," and a complete record of current progress and events.

Special Offer.—We claim that our reprint compares favorably with the high priced editions in every respect, and in respect to maps, and strength and beauty of bindings is superior to them. In order that this claim may be tested by a personal inspection we make the following proposition: We will furnish volume I at 60 cts.—a fraction of actual cost—if sent by express. Add 40 cts. postage if wanted by mail. Amount paid for volume I will be credited on price of set when ordered.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find any one but what was benefitted by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roney, druggist, Geuda Springs, Kan. 50 cent bottles for sale by Morganthaler & Heister.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, 4 years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain; she grew worse rapidly until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold yet you may get a free trial bottle at Z. T. Baltzly's drug store.

Mr. James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill., says: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day and would insist on everyone who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." For sale by Morganthaler & Heister.

If your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timbers, not the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hoods Sarsaparilla.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE

The best salve in the world for cuts bruises sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Z. T. Baltzly.

A Blessing to Humanity.

This is what N. H. Andrews, a prominent citizen of Springfield, O, says: "It affords me great pleasure to assure my friends that I have received both immediate and permanent relief of throat, bronchial and asthmatic trouble in the use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy. It is certainly a good honest medicine and a blessing to humanity." The above preparation we sell on a positive guarantee; it has given better satisfaction than any other remedy we have ever sold. J. M. Schuckers, and E. S. Craig druggist, Massillon, O.

The First Step.
